AT BUSINESS MEETINGS

WHY DO WE NEED TO DRESS UP?

- It reflects the reason why one is at work
- The main reason is to work and not there for a fashion show
- It is important unless one is working in a fashion industry

Dress well:

- It reflects one’s interest and professionalism

Do not dress well:

- It is regarded as having poor judgment on the job. Thus affecting one’s assignments and promotions
PERSONAL GROOMING

EASY STEPS TO CONSIDER

- Reflect Your Goals
- Start with a suit or a jacket dress
- Cover your legs
- Select appropriate undergarments
- Cover up
- Know your options
- Accessorised with jewellery
- Carry a bag
- Choose your colours

AT JOB INTERVIEWS

Wearing the proper business attire to an interview is important for making a good first impression on the hiring manager.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Always dress conservatively

2. Never dress casually on an interview even when the job is in the science field and has an in-lab practical part

3. Although many people believe in the right to express individuality, the conservative business climate always calls for professionalism (E.g. cover tattoos)

INFORMAL MEETINGS

- Favourite Jeans and T-shirt
- Add suitable earrings
- Scarf around the neck
- Heels for the feet

FORMAL EVENTS

- Floor length gowns is not necessary
- Lengths of gowns above the knees are acceptable
- Wear colours that suit your skin tone
- Accessorise yourself with suitable jewelry
- Do not overdo it

OFFICE PARTIES

- Do not overdo the outfit.
- Try to button up instead of down with colleagues present.
- Dress up a little such as wearing a flattering wrap dress, worn with boots a little bit extra makeup, and enjoy the party.
- HAVE FUN

* TIPS *

1. Don't be too simple or too flashy.

2. No matter what the occasion, always dress so you feel comfortable. No one can have fun in a too short dress, or too tight one.

3. Dress for comfort first and the occasion next.

4. A plain dress can always be dressed up with accessories, but a too gaudy dress can never be dressed down.
PERSONAL GROOMING

STEPS TAKEN:

1. Make sure you have chosen your outfit, shoes and accessories that you'll wear.
2. Check for stains and remove them.
3. Iron your party clothes.
4. Have a shower, it’s good to do this because it makes you look fresher and you feel fresh too.
5. Dress in something comfortable until ready to dress in party clothing.
6. Dry your hair and style it how you want to.
7. Put your party clothes on, alongside shoes and accessories.
8. Apply make-up and do one last check for hair, clothing and shoes.
